our hotel
The minute you pull onto our seven acres, wind up our cascading driveway and see our manor house—well, you’ll know that your trip to the Hampton Inn® hotel in Lexington-Historic Area will be extraordinary. Our hotel is in the Colonel Alto Mansion and represents the very best of Virginia. We’ve thoughtfully restored the main house—you may even stay in one of the 10 manor rooms.

directions to our hotel
From I-81: Exit 188 West on Route 60, go 2 1/2 miles and the hotel is at the fourth traffic light. From I-64: Exit 55, South on Route 11, take Route 11 Bypass to the first exit, turn right and the hotel is 1/2 mile on the left. From Visitors Center: Turn left out of the parking lot and follow Washington Street, veer right onto Lewis and the hotel is at the first light.

where to go and what to do
Robert E. Lee. Stonewall Jackson. George C. Marshall. Sam Houston. These names echo with a resounding fervor near our hotel in Lexington. In fact, the majority of these men actually visited our hotel when it was a private residence. Our hotel in Lexington is actually the only hotel in downtown Lexington. We’re just a short stroll to the gorgeous campuses of Virginia Military Institute (VMI) and Washington & Lee University. While you’re there, don’t miss the Lee Chapel and Museum, built under the supervision of Robert E. Lee. His horse, Traveller, is interred outside the general’s office (which looks much as it did when he left it in 1870).
